AOSD.08

International Conference on Aspect-Oriented Software Development

research program – industry track – PhD students' spring school demos – tutorials – workshops

BRUSSELS

March 31st – April 4th, 2008

Hey there!

We'd like to invite you to the next international conference on aspect-oriented software development. The 2008 edition promises to be another exciting event, at a great location. Make sure you don't miss out on the Belgian beer! We are looking forward to you joining us.

the AOSD.08 organizing team,
Brussels, Belgium

PS: Don't throw away this card, it may win you a free registration. For more info, please visit our website at "www.aosd.net".
